

Sometimes it might be helpful to discuss a problem situation or dilemma with a professional counselor. Ask-A-Counselor is a confidential service on CONCERN's website, www.concernservices.com, providing practical information and assistance for problems of daily living.

Through encrypted email communication, you can ask your question and you will receive a private response to your inquiry within one business day from one of CONCERN's licensed professionals.

Go to CONCERN's website; www.concernservices.com.
The Ask-A-Counselor feature is under the Employee / Family tab.
